

Millmead is an attractive and highly individual country home, quietly positioned along a private lane beside the River Arun.

Originally a farm cottage, the property has evolved into a substantial and characterful residence of approximately 2,600 sq ft, set within grounds approaching three-quarters of an acre. Wisteria-clad elevations and a distinctive brick turret give the house strong architectural presence, while inside, exposed joinery, quarry tiled sills and cast iron radiators reflect its Arts & Crafts influence.

The accommodation is both generous and flexible, comprising four reception rooms and a well-appointed Clive Christian kitchen/breakfast room with granite worktops, bespoke cabinetry and French doors opening onto the garden. A separate utility room provides additional practicality.

Upstairs are five bedrooms, several enjoying views across the River Arun and surrounding farmland. The principal suite benefits from a double aspect, fitted wardrobes and a spacious en-suite bathroom. A family bathroom serves the remaining bedrooms.

The gardens extend to just under  $\frac{3}{4}$  of an acre and are predominantly laid to lawn, incorporating a swimming pool, terrace, summer house, vegetable garden and mature natural screening. To the front, a block-paved driveway provides extensive parking, complemented by two detached garages.

Millmead offers architectural distinction, privacy and well-balanced accommodation in a particularly appealing riverside setting.
