

This spacious five bedroom semi detached property presents an excellent opportunity for developers, builders, or buyers looking to create a bespoke family home. Requiring full refurbishment throughout the property offers significant potential to add value and tailor to modern living standards.

The accommodation is generously proportioned with five bedrooms providing ample space for a growing family. The existing layout allows for reconfiguration or extension (subject to planning), making it an ideal project for those with vision.

Externally the property benefits from off road parking and a substantial rear garden offering plenty of outdoor space with scope for landscaping.

Situated in a desirable location, this is a rare opportunity to acquire a property with strong potential in need of complete refurbishment. Early viewing is recommended to fully appreciate the possibilities on offer.
