

Rarely does a house have to be seen to be appreciated, but this stunning Victorian home, offering 2,554 sq ft is definitely an exception. As soon as you enter the front door, you instantly feel blown away with it's character and abundance of space.

As you venture through the ground floor, you are embraced by a larger than average entrance hallway that wraps right around the lounge and leads to the study. You are immediately taken by the ornate Victorian features, including stained glass, panelling and architraves. As you step into the lounge, the feeling continues with an impressive fireplace, tall skirting boards, ceiling rose and feature design. The bay window and tall ceilings creates a bright and welcoming environment.

The ground floor continues offering a plethora of space, as the lounge and study are also complimented by dining room, spacious kitchen with breakfast bar, library area, conservatory, utility space and downstairs WC. It really does feel like this house never ends
